

BLINN COLLEGE DISTRICT

HISTORY DEPARTMENT

HISTORY CLASSES at the Blinn College District allow you to connect with the past, research primary documents, and improve your writing skills while working with supportive, award-winning faculty.

CONTACT US

John Castree
Department Head, History
979-209-7610
john.castree@blinn.edu

www.blinn.edu/history

HIST 2301

TEXAS HISTORY

Texas History counts toward the Texas Common Core!

Learn the history of the great State of Texas - Spanish Texas, Mexican Texas, Texas Independence, Statehood and Secession, Oil, and Industry, etc., while fulfilling your core History requirement.

Additional History Courses

- History 2311 - Western Civilization I
- History 2312 - Western Civilization II
- History 2321 - World Civilization I
- History 2322 - World Civilization II

* Each of the four courses above fulfill the Language, Philosophy, and Culture core requirement at Texas A&M University.

These also are great options for elective credit at the Blinn College District!

Register Now!

Earn core curriculum credits.

The Texas Common Core requires six hours in History. You can fulfill these requirements by taking two of the following classes:

- History 1301 - U.S. History I
- History 1302 - U.S. History II
- History 2301 - Texas History

* These courses can be taken in any sequence.

Get a degree in History!

Core curriculum + 4 additional History classes + 2 electives = Associate of Arts in History.

All Blinn College District history courses are available in person and online!

Register for classes at

www.blinn.edu/admissions