

TITLE IX – BLINN COLLEGE DISTRICT
Student Online Training

- Blinn College is committed to fostering a fair and safe environment for all students. Discrimination, including harassment or retaliation, against any student on the basis of race, color, religion, sex/gender, national origin, disability, age or any other basis prohibited by law is strictly prohibited.
- Title IX was created in the Education Amendments of 1972 to prohibit discrimination (to exclude, separate, deny benefits to or otherwise treat differently) based on sex. This includes discrimination based on same-sex, gender identity or failure to conform to stereotypical notions of masculinity or femininity. Any form of sexual discrimination, harassment, misconduct or violence will not be tolerated in the Blinn College community.

DOES TITLE IX APPLY TO ME?

- Title IX applies to ALL STUDENTS (as well as applicants for admission) at educational institutions (and off campus) regardless of their sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, part- or full-time status, disability, race, or national origin in all aspects of educational programs and activities. All students deserve the right to a fair and safe educational environment.

WHAT IS A TITLE IX VIOLATION?

- Any incident that:
- includes unwelcome sexual advances; requests for sexual favors; sexually motivated physical, verbal, or nonverbal conduct or other conduct and/or communication of a sexual nature
- Creates a hostile environment when the conduct is sufficiently severe, pervasive, or persistent so as to interfere with or limit a student's ability to participate in or benefit from the services, activities, or opportunities offered by an institution
- Causes a student to believe he/she must submit to the conduct in order to participate in a school program or activity or that an educational decision will be made based on whether or not the student submits to the conduct
- Meets the definition of stalking, dating violence, fondling, incest, rape, or statutory rape
- Is any form of sexual discrimination, harassment, misconduct, and/or violence

EXAMPLES OF TITLE IX VIOLATIONS

Some common examples of Title IX violations, but not limited to:

- asking personal questions about sex life, fantasies, preferences, or history
- Telling lies or spreading rumors about a person's sex life
- Stalking or repeatedly asking out a person who is not interested
- Sexually suggestive remarks, jokes, stories, gestures, or catcalls
- sexual or obscene messages or pictures sent via text or computer
- sexual advances, propositions, insults, or threats
- unwelcome or inappropriate touching
- sexual violence or assault
- rape (including date rape)

STATISTICS

- 1 in 5 women are sexually assaulted while in college
- 1 in 16 men are sexually assaulted while in college
- College students are the most vulnerable to sexual violence during the first few weeks of the first and second year
- About 60% of on-campus rapes occur in the residence of the victim, 31% in another residence, and 9% in fraternity houses
- 90% of survivors on a college campus know their attackers
- 75% of the victims of rape involving attackers known to them did not identify their experience as rape
- Less than 5% of college rapes are reported
- 97% of alcohol-related sexual assaults, both parties were drinking

One of the most persistent myths about rape is that the victim was somehow party to the offense: she was seductive or provocative and got what she asked for. Even if the victim wore a short skirt, or drank too much, and even if she acted provocatively or seductively, she still retains the right to say no.

WHAT IS CONSENT?

Consent means the affirmative, unambiguous, and voluntary agreement to engage in a specific sexual activity during a sexual encounter.

Consent cannot be given by an individual who is:

- asleep;
- mentally or physically incapacitated, either through the effect of drugs or alcohol or for any other reason; or
- under duress, threat, coercion, or force.

Consent cannot be assumed or inferred under circumstances in which consent is not clear, including but not limited to:

- the absence of “no” or “stop”; or
- the existence of a prior or current relationship or sexual activity.

DEFINITIONS

- Sexual Assault means any offense that meets the definition of rape, fondling, incest, or statutory rape.
- Rape is penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim.
- Fondling is the touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification without the consent of the victim.
- Incest is non-forcible sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.
- Statutory Rape is non-forcible sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.
- Dating Violence is violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim.
- Stalking is engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for the person's safety or the safety of others; or suffer substantial emotional distress. The victim is usually selected, stalked, groomed, and victimized. The six steps in the grooming process are: target the victim, gain the victim's trust, fill a need for the victim, isolate the victim, sexual exploitation, and maintain control.
- Quid pro quo is harassment that occurs when a school employee causes a student to believe that he or she must submit to unwelcome sexual conduct in order to participate in a school program or activity. It can also occur when an employee causes a student to believe that the employee will make an educational decision based on whether or not the student submits to unwelcome sexual conduct.
- A hostile environment is when harassment occurs when unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature is so severe, persistent, or pervasive that it affects a student's ability to participate in or benefit from an education program or activity or creates an intimidating, threatening, or abusive educational environment. A hostile environment can be created by a school employee, another student, or even someone visiting the school, such as a student or employee from another school.

COUNSELING SERVICES and STUDENT ELIGIBILITY

Students currently enrolled at Blinn College are eligible for an initial intake appointment. Frequency of sessions and the approximate number of sessions or additional services will be made at that time based on the student's concern and the available resources of the department.

Individual counseling consists of one-on-one sessions with a counselor.

Individual counseling is short-term in nature, meaning that the focus will be on what clients want to achieve through therapy. If long-term or more intensive counseling is needed, the counselor will provide a referral list for appropriate professional or agencies in the area.

CONFIDENTIALITY

It is understood that all statements made to a counselor are confidential and may not be disclosed without your prior consent. There are some exceptions and limitations to confidentiality as required by law:

- In cases of suspected abuse or neglect of children or adults not otherwise able to protect themselves.
- If records are court-ordered to be released or otherwise required by state or federal law.
- If you disclose misconduct by a previous therapist.
- We reserve the right to seek consultation from professional colleagues, which will aid us in our work with you. We will treat your information as confidential.
- If we believe you pose a threat to yourself or someone else, we may contact appropriate authorities to maintain your protection and the protection of others.

BENEFITS OF COUNSELING

In order for counseling to be effective, it is necessary for you to take an active role in the process.

Personal commitment to your own growth and change is crucial to counseling success. You can enhance your development by...

- Challenging your beliefs and disclosing information that may be difficult to discuss.
